OUR 22 YEAR OF CAMP JULY 23RD TO JULY 30TH

My first year at camp
By Caleb

This week one of our activities at camp was fishing. Kyle got a fish by the eye, poor fishy. Me and another girl are having a contest to see who can catch the most fish. The score is I have 9 and that girl has 8. Jack and Tyler passed there kayak test. The boys are upset with quiet time, why? Why is there only one girl camper in the girl group? Thank you all for reading

Taking charge of your health is a good idea for everyone (adults and kids) to do a few things to make the most of their health.

1. Keep an up to date list of medication and medication allergies on you at all times (in your pocket, in your wallet, in your purse, or in your cell phone)

2. Keep a list of your medical history (medical conditions, any surgeries) on you at all time.

3. For campers you should make a list of three or four questions, concerns, or comments for every doctor visit with your parents (for staff this is a good idea, too)

4. If you have a cell phone, put an ICE in your cell phone-In case of emergency.

This would be the person who should be called in an emergency if you can not call for yourself.

Camp Del Ja Ri Turns 22 By Alisa the Camp Director

We might have been low in number but we were mighty in spirit!!!!!! We had 4 campers 3 boys and 1 girl but they seemed to enjoy the one on one treatment that they received and enjoyed the close knit family atmosphere.

We had a new Doctor join us- Dr. Mike and he was a great addition to our staff. The campers related to him very well and he was fun to be around.

Our theme this week revolved around "game shows". Yes, it is official that our campers are smarter than a camp counselors!!!! We also enjoyed bunk group feud and our stand by "Bingo".

We splatter painted our camp t-shirts and made some other neat arts and crafts such as paper beads, hedge hogs, survivor bracelets.

Fishing is always a camp favorite and we had some fierce competition between Caleb and "the girl" (Bailie).

We enjoyed the new building at camp mack for our meals. The weather was warm but we didn't care, we were together and that's all that matters.

Pizza and movie night again was a success and it was just what we needed on a Thursday night.

We are rebuild mode as we need to recruit more campers but at the end of the day we are thankful that Bailie, Caleb, Tyler, and Jack were able to bring joy into our lives by sharing themselves with us.

It is also with a thankful heart that I thank Dr. Mike, Renee, Deb, Emilie, Katie, Jason (foz), Kyle, Tiffany, and Amanda for their unselfishness in giving up a week of their summer to make camp a success.

Our camp shirts were yellow
Our gatorade was pink
Our 23rd year of camp
Will be here before you think!!!!
Wishing you all a great year until we can be together again.
Love Alisa

Polar Bear Swim By Bailie

Wednesday Morning we went out around 7:30 am and swam for a while. It was surprisingly warm as I jumped in right away off the pier. We call this Polar Bear Swim obviously. When it was time to get out we begged the lifeguard to tell us get out so it could be official. Overall it was a fun time and I can't wait to come back and do it again next year!

Boating at Camp By Jack

Boating at camp can be very exciting. We get to choose from three boats; a rowboat, a canoe, or a kayak. The canoe and Kayak require an age to get in. After in the boat, there are a lot of places to go to.

One of the three locations is the barge. It is an old, sunken ship. You can see it under water, when you are by it. The second location is the north and south beaches. It is where we swim. It has a diving board and a raft, on the beaches.

The last location is Rock Island. It is very far from where we get in our boats. It is a long travel in the boats to get there. Once there, there are many rocks just under the water's surface. It is very neat and fun to go boating during camp.

Random Thoughts from Caleb
By Caleb

Is a water fight going to happen? Did you know that my dad knows Angela the jazz person. A egg tossed happened a couple days ago. I might be hired for jazz.

Does Kyle really eat
1,00000,0000,0000 pizza pieces?
Please circle your answer, yes or no

Do you want an ultimate frisbee game on thursday? Counselors vs Campers, if your coming circle yes or no and then show me.

Late Night Swim and Kayak Test
By Tyler

This was our first time swimming in the lake at night, the water was really warm!

On the first full day of camp Jack and Tyler did the kayak test.

Brandon the life guard flipped our kayaks and all we had to do was fall out, it was a piece of cake.
